NeuroHack branding

Let's See What It Is?

This workshop on market solutions for neuropsychiatric disorders is a unique hackathon-style event where you can learn from mentors, participate in group work, and develop innovative product concepts that bring together neuroscience, business and technology transfer.

The goal of NeuroHack is to practice commercialisation 'safely - without the risk of bankruptcy'.

Let's See Who We Are?

SAME-NeuroID project integrates scientific and peri-scientific endeavors, featuring research, educational workshops, and fostering a dynamic international network for collaborative learning.
